

Submission Guidelines
May 2012

The following information helps us determine if there is a good fit between your manuscript and Invenire Books.

1. The focus of the book. It needs to fit with the notions of "new ideas and collaborative governance" and Invenire Books' overall aim of offering creative and practical responses to the challenges and opportunities faced by today's complex organizations.
2. The proposed book title.
3. A summary of the overall contribution of the work (including the question(s) it addresses) plus a briefly annotated table of contents.
4. Chapter titles should reflect the content and logical flow of the book.
5. Information about the author(s). An up-to-date c.v. should be included for each author or editor.
6. The target audience.
7. The estimated length of the entire work in characters, words, or double-spaced manuscript pages (if the latter, indicate the number of lines and characters per line on a typical page, or include a sample page), as well as the anticipated number of figures, tables, photographs, etc. The expected completion date and an indication of what material is available now for review.

We will expect a contribution of CDN$5,000 - CDN$8,000 from the author to help defray publishing costs and, if accepted in principle, we expect the manuscript is with us on an exclusive basis.

We ask that you send your proposal via post - not via email attachment. And please, always feel free to contact us with questions or for a preliminary response to your project.
